

The new Christians were persecuted for their faith - sometimes they were arrested, or their houses were taken away! The book of Hebrews was written as an encouragement to Christians, and we can also be encouraged by its message today.